

Heritage Elementary Reading Fair Project Guidelines

- ❖ Signup must be completed by the due date (August 16) in order to participate in the Reading Fair.
- ❖ Participant should choose a book on their reading level. This means the participant will need to read the book.
- ❖ Only two story boards of the same title are allowed, so please turn in your entry form early.
- ❖ All entries should represent a fictional book.
- ❖ Participant must design and make a story board using the checklist provided upon sign up. All items must be included on the storyboard.
- ❖ Storyboards must be original. Ideas can be found by Googling or Pinterest Reading Fairs
- ❖ Storyboard will need to be displayed on a standard tri-fold project board that measures 36" H x 48" W. They will be provided upon sign up while supplies last. These can also be found at the Dollar Tree and office supply stores.
- ❖ Identifying information will need to be written on the back of the storyboard. This will include student name, teacher name, and grade level.
- ❖ Storyboards should be colorful and interesting. All display items should fit on the tri-fold or in the middle of the display. Nothing should hang off the display table or on the floor.
- ❖ Writing can be handwritten or typed.

Please Note: Storyboard content should match the age, grade level, and the ability of the student presenting the display.

- ❖ Electrical cords will not be available or allowed for presentation of material.
- ❖ Participant must have storyboard set up before judging begins in order to compete.
- ❖ Student must be present to win!
